Here Deputy Cmr, Tumkur Dist., was absent for 9 days in all from 6th to 14th April 25. As he was required to attend the Leg.
Council meeting on the 15th, he requests that the 14th may be treated as time spent on journey to Bangalore. The Deputy Cmr.
first wanted the period of 6 days ½ from 6th to 13th (excluding 2 general holidays on the 10th.
& 12th.) to be treated as
casual leave. As the Dy.
Cmr. had already utilised 10 days' casual leave, it was pointed out to him that he could not have more than 5 days' casual leave. Now, he requests that the period from 6th to 9th may be treated as time spent on duty at Bangalore and Nandi Hills where he was engaged in attending to office work.

The Dy Comr availed himself of Casual leave from the 23rd to the 27th March, duly reporting the same to Govt. Further that his subsequent leave from the 6th to the 14th April could not be treated as Casual leave, he requests that the first mentioned period may be treated as compensatory leave. This can not be considered regular or allowable, — to convert the leave, when ~~it is~~ subsequent events ~~render~~ are found to make the previous arrangement inconvenient to the Officer.

Next, the request to consider the period spent by him in Bangalore and on the Nandi Hills (outside his District) as being on duty can not obviously be sanctioned.

In the result, the period in question, viz; 9 days will have to be treated as privt leave, after ascertaining that he is entitled to it.

It is not possible to hear the whole of the later period (6th to 13th April 25) as compensation leave as six months would have been elapsed by the 10th April 25 from the Dasara holidays (period of imitation is 5th to 10th Oct 24 & a day to go to Mysore) in lieu of which compensation leave is to be given.

Dear Sir,

In continuation of my letter No. 142 of the 30th ultimo, intimating that I would avail myself of 7 days casual leave from the 3rd instant (and not from 3 - 3 - 25, as entered in the previous communication by oversight) I write to state that I could not utilise the same from the 3rd but am doing so from to day. S i r,

With reference to your letter No.2417/C.B. 5-24 dated the 16th April 1925 regarding my leave, I have the honor to state that out of the 8 days' leave availed of by me from 6th to 13th April 1925, 10th and 12th idems were authorized holidays. From the 6th to 9th inclusive, I was engaged in disposing of office papers and writing out judgments in Revenue and Muzrai Appeal Cases making my own arrangements to take office papers at my own cost to Bangalore and Nandi Hills, where I stopped. I request, therefore, that I may be considered to have been on duty on these four days and that the remaining period of 2 days may be treated as compensation leave as I am entitled to it, having worked for 10 days in Mysore from 5th to 14th October 1924 in connection with the Dasara Festivities and other meetings.

2. Further, I beg to state that the 5 days' leave availed of by me from the 23rd to 27th March 1925 was by mistake reported as casual leave instead of compensation leave in liew of the holidays referred to above, and I request that the above period of casual leave may now be commuted into compensation leave.

I have the honor to be,

your most obedient servant,
